Subject of the power of attorney:

The principal authorizes the above mentioned lawyer to represent his legal interests out of court, in particular in the following matters:

- Legal advice under German and Arabic law,
- Drafting and reviewing contracts, declarations and legal documents,
- Communication with authorities, institutions, consulates and embassies,
- Communications with lawyer, notaries and courts (in coordination with an authorized attorney)
- Obtaining and forwarding information and documents,
- Representation in correspondence with third parties.

The power of attorney does not include legal representation in the sense of procedural representation pursuant to § 78 of the German Civil Procedure (ZPO) and does not replace the authorization of a lawyer within the meaning of the German Federal Lawyers' Act (BRAO).

The authorized representative is entitled to act in individual matters on behalf of the principal, to obtain information, to receive and issue declarations and to grant necessary sub-powers of attorney to suitable persons or lawyers.

The power of attorney is valid from the date of signature and can be revoked in writing any time.
